translated edited and introduced by Edward Y. J. Chung the great synthesis of Wang Yangming neo confucianism in Korea the Chonon Testament by Chong Chedu Hagok is the first study in a western language of Chong Chedu Hagok 1649-1736 and Korean Wang Yangming neo confucianism Hagok was an eminent philosopher who established the unorthodox Yangming school Yangmyonghak in Korea this book includes an annotated scholarly translation of the Chonon Testament Hagok's most important and interesting work on Confucian self cultivation Chung also provides a comprehensive introduction to Hagok's life scholarship and thought especially his great synthesis of Wang's philosophy of mind cultivation and moral practice in relation to the classical teaching of Confucius and Mencius and his critical analysis of Zhu Xi neo confucianism and its Songnihak tradition Chung concludes that Hagok was an original scholar in the Songnihak school a great transmitter and interpreter of Yangming neo confucianism in Korea and a creative thinker whose integration of these two traditions inaugurated a distinctively Korean system of ethics and spirituality this book sheds new light on the breadth and depth of Korean Neo-Confucianism and serves as a primary source for philosophy and East Asian studies in general and Confucian studies and Korean religion and philosophy in particular

This catechism is divided into three parts: the first part treats of faith, the second of morals, the third of the means of grace. In the first part our Lord appears in his character of teacher, in the second in his character of king, and in the third in his character of high priest. And since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth, thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny, it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests, self-indulgence, and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many. This catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven. Preface
